

Key Texts of Russian Literature (19-21th centuries)

Unit Title	Key Texts of Russian Literature (19-21th centuries)
Level of Study
Credit Value		ECTS Value	2
Home Department	Department of Russian Literature
Home Faculty	Philology Faculty
Unit Co-ordinator	Professor Anna A. Arustamova, associate professor Dr. Ilya Yu. Rogotnev
Key Words	Russian literature of the 19-20th centuries, Classical novel, Postmodernism studies, gender studies and cultural studies.
Brief Summary	Students will study works of prominent Russian authors. In the focus of the course will be transformations of Classical novel in the context of drastical historical and cultural changes of the 20th century. Examples for studying will also include films, theater shows, operas and other texts of culture.
Indicative Content	Students will apply different methodological approaches to the texts of Alexander Pushkin, Ivan Turgenev, Fyodor Dostoevsky, Anton Chekhov, Mikhail Bulgakov, Boris Pasternak. Postmodernism studies, gender studies and cultural studies will be also used. Students will read texts mostly in English language, some fragments we will read in Russian language.		